

Increasing the number of stations that a company can own, creates a monopoly situation. It is a threat to democracy. The proposed increase in ownership should be rejected.